

The Second Annual Midwest Mandolin Festival

June 3 - 4, Summit Lake State Park (near New Castle, IN)

Free with paid admission to the park

Come join us for two days of acoustic music, featuring the mandolin! 11:00 - 8:00 on Saturday, and 11:00 - 5:00 on Sunday. Bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating in the grass, or take advantage of seating in the performance shelter (which will seat 100+ people - come rain or shine!) Featuring a number of regional performers, including the following:

Homer Pass and Mike Butler (Country Blues)
Dayton Mandolin Orchestra (Mandolin orchestra)
Yank Rachell Tribute Band (Blues)
Pray for Mojo (Bluegrass)
Ann and Phil Case (Old Time)
John Gates and Harvey Mosteller (Bluegrass)
Mandolindy (Variety mandolin ensemble music)
Slates Family Band (Down home music served up family style)
Miami Valley Mandolin Quintet (Grab bag o' mandolin music)
Five Oh! (Contra Dance)
il Troubadore (Indy's 16th century rock band)
Fellowship (Gospel)
Mark Kurkowski and Mario Joven (Jazz)
Ephod (Inspirational Folk/Jazz/Irish music)

For more information, go to www.mandolindy.com

Presented by The Mandolin Society of Central Indiana
Sponsored by Frank's Violins (www.franksviolins.com)
Sound Provided by Slates Family Band - Dave and Phil Slates