

Scott Brewer

Scott Brewer was born in Grant County, Indiana. He grew up in Fairmount, and Fort Wayne. He graduated from Wabash College in Crawfordsville with a B. A. in Classics (Greek Civilization) in 1980. He currently lives in the Indianapolis area and is employed as a Municipal Arborist. Scott is a member of the Poetry Alliance of Indy, and has been writing and teaching poetry for several years. He participates at many readings in the central Indiana area.

His favorite subjects are his family (three daughters), Indiana residents and their environment, and other poets, his first book was published in 2005 through an Individual Artist Grant from the Indiana Arts Commission.

Scott's email address is SBrewer@carmel.in.gov